- Note.*—This is a complete copy (except one leaf in the beginning of vol. II and a leaf or two at the beginning of vol. III) of an edition which in one volume has the date of 1474. It was formerly supposed to have been printed by John Faust, but Mr. Duve in a memoir upon the subject, shows conclusively, that it was not printed by Faust or Schaeffer, but probably at Augsburg. Vol. I begins thus: Incipit Prologus Fratris Vincencij de Burgundia Ordinis predicatorum in libro qui dicitur Speculum Hystoriale. It ends, on fol. 341 verso, 2d col., thus: Explicit registrum capitaloru decem libror. prime partis speculi hystoriale fratris vincencij. Vol. II or part II begins: Incipit speculi hystoriale Vincencij pars secunda. Liber vndecimus. It ends, fol. 322 recto, Secunda pars speculi hystoriale fratris vincencij. Et vicesimus primus liber in ordine totius voluminis fuit feliciter The table of contents in 9 leaves in one case is placed at the end and in the other first in the book. Vol. III begins with Liber 22; but chapter I-VII and all but 11 lines of chapter VIII are wanting in this copy. It ends thus: videre non valeant: Explicit tricesimus. primus liber. Then follow ten lines beginning, Codicis et ending patria. Then follows the date thus: M.cccc.lxxliij. The work is printed in double columns, 62 lines, without folios, signatures or catchwords.
- Same. [Augustæ Vindellicorum?], 1474. 2v. f° *B.150.4
- Note.*—These are the 1st and 2d vols. of another copy of the same edition as the preceding.
- Note.*—The foregoing form a set of the original edition of the Speculum quadruplex, complete with the exception of the third book (forming usually the 3d vol.) of the Morale, and of the first and second vols. of the Historiale, together with a set of the Historiale of the edition of 1474 complete except one leaf at the beginning of vol. II and a leaf or two at the beginning of vol. III, and a duplicate of vols. I and II of this edition, very complete and perfect. Among the whole may be made out a complete copy of the Speculum quadruplex, excepting the 3d part of the Morale, and a leaf or two at the beginning of vol. III of the Historiale.
